Know a high school student who is going through the college search process and needs spring break plans? We have the answer.

Now is the perfect time to plan a road trip to Oxford! Spring is quickly approaching, which means warm weather, flowers in bloom, and countless activities taking place on Miami's picturesque campus.

And what better way to learn about Miami's traditions than taking a tour of campus? Visitors will enjoy a toasted roll, rub the turtle's head for good luck, stroll down Slant Walk, and avoid the seal during a campus tour led by current students.

Come back to campus – or encourage others to discover the place you loved to call home!
