Dear [name],

This letter is to inform you that [name] has earned the designation of Certified Deltasig Leader (CDL) from the International Fraternity of Delta Sigma Pi, America's foremost fraternity promoting the study of business. The Fraternity has more than 270 chapters and 230,000 members nationwide. The CDL program, Delta Sigma Pi's volunteer training and certification program, recognizes alumni members for their demonstrated leadership and experience.

To become certified, applicants must complete certain requirements, including participating in national Fraternity events; completing ten core training presentations, including topics such as presentation skills and time management; and supporting Delta Sigma Pi's Leadership Foundation, which generates and provides financial support for the Fraternity's educational and charitable programs.

[Name] has taken the time to enhance [his/her] knowledge and skills to become a better leader. This skill set applies within Delta Sigma Pi and certainly beyond to all [his or her] endeavors, including the employment arena. We hope you join us in recognizing [name]'s dedication and effort to enhance [his/her] professional skills.

Sincerely,
